The Alpha and Omega of Gangnam Hallyu

Gangnam is the birthplace of K-Pop idols, and K-Star Road, connected to Apgujeong Rodeo Station, is its heart. Upon arrival, you'll be greeted by the iconic Gangnamdols, statues sculpted in the likeness of K-Pop idols. These unique sculptures are, naturally, a popular photo spot, perfect for commemorating your Gangnam journey. What's more, numerous drama filming locations and idol-frequented shops are just a stone's throw away, offering the exciting possibility of a chance encounter with your favorite star. Now, take your first step into this thrilling experience.

Memories Towards a Dream, Stray Kids Tour in Gangnam

For Stray Kids, who spent their trainee days in Gangnam, the memories here are extra special. Fans often visit Cheongdam-dong, where the old JYP building used to be, and the surrounding areas to retrace those steps. We recommend listening to "GLOW" and "4419," album tracks that capture these memories, to make your Stray Kids tour even more meaningful
